Press Release
April 2010

The organisers of the 18th annual Sleaford Historic Car & Motorcycle Show will be looking forward to filling the facilities of St. George's College in Sleaford on Saturday the 4th of September with a wide array of unique and historic vehicles. Entrants are currently being booked and there's still plenty of space available in all categories for all types of cars and motorcycles as well as the independent agricultural, commercial and stationary engine class. Also, as with previous years, there will be an on site craft fair for traders selling their goods and services.

As always, admission for the general public is free and they will be casting their votes on the vehicles. The winning entries will receive a beautifully crafted trophy, created by Ferg Phillip and presented by the category sponsor, and all entrants will receive a goody bag as a souvenir and thank you for being a part of the show. In total there are 11 separate class categories divided between cars and motorcycles, and a total of 15 awards to be presented including best in show.

The show has now been running annually in Sleaford for the last 17 years having first showcased entrants prized vehicles in 1993. Each year hundreds of entrants and visitors travel from all over the country to be a part of the event, and we are always looking for new people to enter and get involved. This year money raised from previous events lead to a donation of £300 to the Lincolnshire & Nottingham Air Ambulance.

Entry forms can be obtained directly from the Sleaford Historic Car & Motorcycle Show website or by contacting Glenyse Barr on (01529) 462860.

Stalls are available at the Craft Fair for traders and charitable organisations. For more details, or to book a stall, visit the website or contact Andy Lenton on (01529) 309141.
